

Examples of Various GLS Screens

Home My Coach FAQs My Notebook My Progress My Messenger

Please select the course that you would like to do:

- Sales
- Shilin Stone Forest (Demo)

Proceed Logout

Home My Coach FAQs My Notebook My Progress My Messenger

Overview

→

Karst

→

Shilin Stone Forest

Ecosystem

→

Protect Stone Forest-Assignment

→

Learning Schedule
Date	Hours	Learning Content
Thursday, Oct 11, 2007	2 hours	Overview and Karst Landscape
	hours	Shilin Forest Stone
	hours	Ecosystems
	hours	Protect Shilin Forest Stone-Assignment

Add as a  BOOKMARK

Home My Coach FAQs My Notebook My Progress My Messenger

Lesson - Overview

Introduction

Generic Company Introduction (Untouchable Marketing Demo)

 Completed

 Completed

↑

Logout Select Other Course

Home My Coach FAQs My Notebook My Progress My Messenger

Unit - Introduction

Introduction to the Curriculum

Target Learners:

Students at Pearson International High School who are registered in the Geography class.

Purposes:

- To help learners gain knowledge about Karst Geology and Geomorphology and Ecosystems of Shilin Stone Forest.
- To increase knowledge and appreciation of the Stone Forest scenes.
- To improve learners' awareness of protecting ecological system and the Stone Forest.

Program Length

Two hours on Thursday and two hours on Friday after school.

Requirements of the Program

- Students who have studied World Geography and finished the Chemistry courses.
- During the program, students will be required to complete assessments.
- At the end of the program, students will be required to submit a proposal on the topic of protecting and preserving the Shilin Stone Forest.

Curriculum Content:

- Introduction to Karst Landscape.
- Location range of Shilin Stone Forest.
- Appearance and features of Shilin Stone Forest.
- Formational processes and factors that influence the formation of the Stone Forest.
- Three ecosystems of Shilin Stone Forest.
- Human activities that affect the Shilin Stone Forest.
- Assignment.